Assignment - Film & Video Questions

Unit 1- Fundamentals

· demonstrate an understanding of and ability to use basic screen production terminology.

A. Film & Video Questions (written)

You are asked to respond to the questions below in written form. Please use full sentences whenever possible. Please make sure that the answers clearly correspond to the question/number. A number of answers will require your personal opinion. Other answers may require a small amount of research. At this stage in the course, detailed knowledge is not expected. All that is asked of you is that you make at least a reasonable attempt to complete the assignment.

1. Describe any previous film & video/moving image-making experience that you have had
2. How do you typically watch film & television content?
3. Define 'film'.
4. Name an old video format
5. What criteria would you use to judge a good film or television programme?
6. How is Eadweard J. Muybridge important to the history of the moving image?
7. Name a significant actor or actress. What makes them so good?
8. Name a significant film director and indicate a few of the projects that they have been involved in. What makes their work stand out?
9. Name and date a classic film.
10. Name 2 film genres
11. Name a shot-type or camera angle
12. What is super-8?
13. What is 4k resolution?
14. Name a known film that has been made in Canada.
15. Apart from a technology credit, what you hope to gain from the FVP12 course?

B. What is your favourite movie and why? (short in-class presentation)

You are asked to present your views (with supported visuals) in a semi-formal but informative manner. At this stage you will gain marks by having a go and expressing your opinions.

1. Give some thought to what you would consider to be your favourite film, TV programme, music video, etc.
2. Find a short clip on Youtube or any other suitable visual reference.
3. Present your choice to the class.
4. State the Film Title, Year of Release, Genre or Type of Film.
5. Entice your audience by briefly describing/outlining the story. Make it sound appealing. Try not to give the ending away though.
6. In your opinion, say why your choice is a significant example?
